

A black and white illustration of a life jacket. The jacket has a white upper section and a black lower section with three horizontal white stripes. The text is printed on the white sections. The top left section contains the words 'WATER SAFETY' in large, bold, black capital letters. The top right section contains the text 'Safe Kids Pennsylvania' and the phone number '1-800-683-5100' in a smaller font. The lower section contains a list of three safety rules, each preceded by a number. The entire life jacket is outlined with a thick pink border.
